

Winthrop Telephone Company Privacy Policy

Simply – We won't give out your personal information.

Winthrop Telephone Company does not give out or sell information about any customer we serve. We will not give out email addresses or location identification information of our Internet subscribers through inquiries by others that may contact us via email or phone. We will, however, comply with law enforcement requests for any information pursuant the procedures of the Communications Assistance for Law Enforcement Act ("CALEA"), the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act ("FISA") or other applicable national security or criminal statutes.

The Winthrop Telephone Company's network management practices do not generally entail inspection of network traffic. The Company does not collect, store or use traffic information to profile its customers in order to sell additional services to them, or for similar non-network management purposes.

If any questions, please contact Winthrop Telephone Company at (507)647-5395
